STAKE IS HOTLY CONTESTED

SIR EDGAR WINS JUVENILE EVENT AT PAL-METTO PARK BY NARROW MARGIN

R. F. Carman Complains to the Stewards of Manner in Which One of His Horses Was Recently

Ridden by Jockey Byrne.

Charleston, S. C., January 28.—The Aiken Stakes, value $1,200, for two-year elds, three and a half furlongs, which featured this afternoon's card at Palmetto Park, developed into a rattilag contest, with the unbeaten Sir Edgar winding up a head in advance of Idiola, and the latter a nose in froat of Electrician. The placed trio participated in an exceptionally hard siretch drive and practically ran on even terms throughout the last furlong. Sir Edgar was the favorite and jockey Pickett's superior minishing ability proved a big factor in the victory. Jockey J. McTargart, who has been riding indifferently during the past week, took a brace this afternoon and piloted the winners of three racess on Deposit, which wen the handican at five and a half furlongs from a crack bane, he showed rare skill and drove his mount through a small opening on the stretch turn, saving much ground and ultimately enabling him to win. Caugh Hill and Wilhite, both intended as "good things," ran disappointingly, but Wilhite might have been closer up with more energetic handling. Two other riders whose efforts came in for criticism were Martin and Skirvin, who rode Dedaction and Jacob Bunn, in the third race, which was won by Iye Straw, the favorite.

Following Water Lad's sadden improvement in winning the opening dash, R. F. Carman complained to the stewards in regard to the bad ride the horse had received in a former start when ridden by jockey Byrne. The stewards intend to probe into the matter. Owner Carman neglected to back Water Lad this afternoon, but supported him liberally in his preceding start.

Jockey Lindsey is the latest "come back" and his appearance in the saddle on Jezail, his first mount here, was the signal for applause. He finished third at long oids and later piloigd Master Jin to a nose victory in the closing dash. Jockey Ward, on Billie Baker, which finished second in this race, thought he had won and the making of some impertinent remark about the placing brought him a ten-days suspension from the stewards.

change from warm summerlike weather to a high and cold wind, had a tendency to make the patronage rather light, but the layers reported plenty of ring action.

Bob Hensley, bred and developed by Allen & Hensley, won the Sierre Madre Handicap at six furlongs from a good band of three-year-olds. The larse was unquestionably best, as his rider, lockey starce, who has had but little experience in the saddle, was of little assistance to him, and the horse won on his own courage. The boy gave laddle, was of little assistance to him, and the horse won on his own courage. The boy gave laddle, was of little assistance to him, and the horse won on his own courage. DEUTSCHLAND AGAIN CHANGES HANDS.

George Wingfield of Reno, Nev., is starting in to stock a small farm with choice thoroughbreds in Nevada. He has the celebrated mares Recreation. Shasta Water and Princess Zeika that raced so well in the colors of Burns & Waterhouse, and last Monday, while visiting this city, made the best purchase he ever has in his life. He bought from S. Christenson of this city, the stallion Deutschland, a grandly-bred son of Sain and Derfargilla, by Onondaga. Deutschland is a handsome, well-made stallion and if breeding is any criterion, he should be one of the best sires in America. Mr. Wingfield also purchased the following four grand-looking, well-bred mares, all in foal to Chantilly (brother to Cluny), being by Salvation out of Valencienne, by St. Carlo; Tallac, by Top Gallant—Linwood; Faymuir, by Canopus—Duplex; Eleven Bells, by Quick-lime—Elsie S., and St. Sepherene, by St. Carlo—Wind Flower, P. Guilliams, superintendent of Mr. Wingfield's farm, started for Reno with these thoroughbreds last Thursday. Mr. Wingfield believes racing will be revived on an extensive scale in Reno next year.—San Francisco Breeder and Sportsman.

SOME ECCENTRIC BETTING INCIDENTS.

SOME ECCENTRIC BETTING INCIDENTS.

Mr. John Haynes, a well-known bookmaker in Tattersall's, has in the past made some poculiar bets while horses have been running. At Warwiek some little time ago he offered $500 to a cigarette against a horse, which was accepted, and he then tendered a further $500 to a match against the same animal, which ran unplaced. On several other occasions he has laid $500 to a shilling against a horse, but had never had to pay. At Hurst Park, January 16, however, he tendered these odds against Form, which proved successful, and the bet was promptly settled on the soot, amidst lond cheering. The fortunate punter afterwards regaled some of the onlookers of the transaction with $25 worth of champagne. Speaking of "freak" bets, it may be stated that when Blink Bonny beat Black Tommy by a neck in the Derby, a bookmaker laid Mr. Drinkald, the owner of the latter, $100,000 to a suit of clothes, hat, boots and Malacca cane against his horse, which started at 200 to 1 against.—London Sporting Life.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. W. Johnson is reported as eager to match Sir Edgar against any other two-year-old at Charleston for $1,000 a side.
